

Ready to Bargain Our Next Contract?

Now Accepting Nominations for Our St. John's Regional 121RN Chapter Bargaining Team!

Our current contract expires this year, and we're preparing in advance so we're ready when we get to the bargaining table with management.

Anyone interested in joining our Bargaining Team to represent our fellow RNs should submit a nomination petition by Jan. 29, 2015.

Bargaining Team elections will be held on February 9.

Bargaining Team members work to preserve the benefits we've previously won, as well as to bargain for new improvements in our wages, benefits and working conditions.

Return the nomination form on the back by Jan. 29 to a Union Steward or to our Union rep Chris Slane, RN.

Forms may be faxed to (805) 482-4655.

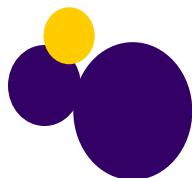

What is a Bargaining Team Member?

- A representative elected by coworkers.
- Someone who represents our concerns to management at the bargaining table so that we can make improvements in our contract.
- Someone committed to advocating for raising standards for all members.

What are the requirements of a Bargaining Team Member?

- Attend bargaining training.
- Attend bargaining meetings.
- Willing to provide bargaining updates to fellow RNs throughout the bargaining process.

Additional details available. If interested, please talk with a Union Steward or your Union Representative.
